'Your show has energy, pace and warmth...Audiences will love every minute' - Brigid Panet, Royal Academy of Dramatic Art

BurntOut Theatre returns to Burnt Norton, Chipping Campden after their sell-out run of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' in August 2012. This June we return to Burnt Norton with Shakespeare's romantic comedy 'As You Like It' for a unique open-air performance, in aid of the Multiple Sclerosis Trust and The Tumaini Trust. With an inspired WW1 setting, audiences will be led around the historic grounds of Burnt Norton by a company of actors, singers, musicians and a trapeze artist; they will sit among the famous pools that inspired T.S. Eliot's Four Quartets, with views over stunning Cotswold scenery..

BurntOut Theatre is an upcoming London-based theatre company made up of actors, singers and musicians. We specialise in bringing accessible, promenade productions of classic plays to unique and historic open-air venues, accompanied by original music and song, whilst raising money for worthy charities. After a highly successful summer season in 2012 we raised over £8000 for the Multiple Sclerosis Society. Please join us again at Burnt Norton and help us match this!

Doors open 6pm and 1pm for matinees. Come early with your picnics, rugs and chairs, and enjoy the splendid surroundings before the performance.

Please note. This is a promenade production, please wear warm clothes and sensible shoes.

Disabled access by prior arrangement only. Contact Caroline Harrowby on 01386841488.
