

Talking About T.S.Eliot: Free Event
Private View and Discussion.
Tuesday 15 February 6.30 - 8pm
Rose Theatre, Kingston upon Thames.

Join Paul Keers, Chairman of the T.S.Eliot Society, and artist Richard Williams for a private view of the exhibition and discussion of Eliot's poetry.

Register by email to: poetryofpainting@icloud.com
or text "Eliot" to 07532 046 335

The Poetry of Painting

Exhibition 11 - 25 February

T S ELIOT SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

T.S. Eliot

ROSE
THEATRE
KINGSTON

The Poetry of Painting is an exhibition of artworks that explores the poetry of T.S.Eliot. Four large paintings relate to Eliot's greatest poetic work: the Four Quartets. Three other large paintings form a triptych which visualises themes from Eliot's Selected Poems.

T.S. Eliot was a philosopher as much as he was a poet. His poetry engages with our most fundamental relationships with life, death, God, nature and the universe.

When an artist makes pictures in response to poetry the result is not simply an illustration. It is a new kind of conversation. Join Paul Keers and Richard Williams in conversation about Eliot, his poetry and the challenge of visualising his ideas in painting.

The Poetry of Painting supports the Royal Marsden Cancer Charity.
www.williamsartwrx.org.

